

Global Diversity Group, Inc.

Media Kit

5/14/2003

Caribbean News

1-202-710
The Global Diversity
Group's Business
Exchange:
2003 Tour
for Success stopped at the Hilton Hotel in
New York.
Global Diversity

Group's goal is to empower relationships between communities and corporations through technology and media and the focus was on small businesses in communities of color. The day long event featured free business orientated workshops, the Partnership for Progress Lunch, and an evening lecture and reception featuring Russell Simmons CEO and President of Rush Communications. (In photo) Radio personality Tony Brown and Maria Elena Carese of Volvo,center, with small business owners from the metropolitan area honored at the lunch.

Photos by William Farrington